The house and barns, with contents, on the Hamilton farm in Windham vere destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock last Saturday morning. Everett, Charles and George Hamilton, who owned and occupied the place, were at tending a dance in South Londonderry, and when they reached home the buildings were practically all burned and everything was lost but the clothing they wore and the automobile in which they made their trip. Neighbors were half a mile away and by the time they reached the house it was too late to do anything. The cause of the fire is a mystery, as it appeared to have started in the barn and there had been no light or fire there that day, so far as the owners knew. Included in the prop erty burned were 40 or 50 tons of early cut hay, 40 bushels potatoes, 12-horsepower gasoline epgine, with saw and silo-filling outfit, new $100 victrola, with 50 records and $100 in currency. There was only $800 insurance. The buildings will probably not be rebuilt.

49 Anderson St., Portland, Maine.

"I was troubled with Constipation ever since I can remember; as a result, was subject to distressing Headaches and pain in my left side. I would go for two or three days without any movement of the bowels.

I chanced to read about 'Fruita-tives', in one of our local papers, and began their use about four months ago. Since them, I have been free from Headaches, my bowels have been regular, and from the use of several boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives', I feel that the great benefit I have derived justifies me in pronouncing them a remedy of true and exceptional

While this is not by any means the last feature of this Spreader, we are not going to burden you longer with minute detail, but just call attention to the most worthy feature of all, and this is.

THE COMPANY BACK OF THE SPREADER

The John Deere Ca is one of the oldest and most reliable companies making farm machinery to-day.

A company that stands for quality and service in every sense of the word.

When you think Spreader, think John Deere.
